

Domus Joan Gaspar

Architecture, lines and distinctiveness. A bollard light that reveals its empty interior. Domus hides its light, refusing to reveal where it comes from, and projects a subtle angle of illumination. The beauty of this new bollard lies in how its form plays with and defines its light. It can be installed individually but takes on a sculptural feel in combinations of two or three units, the beam of light spreading in different directions and achieving greater breadth.
